Next came George Sauerhaum, residing at 1929 Carr street, St. Louis, who is an old patient of Dr. Hartman. He stated that he had suffered most intensely from thronic catarrh of the head and lungs, but is now almost cured, his lungs being entirely well and his head greatly improved. The gratitude of this gentleman was almost boundless, and he expressed it to the reporter in the strongest terms, saying "Pereuna will cure any disease."

Chronic Catarria.

C. W. Meilier, of 406 South Fourth street, St. Louis, is twenty years of age, and has been a sufferer from chronic catarria, which had become quite offensive. When he came to Dr. Hartman, two months ago, he was told it would take six months to cure him. But he has progressed beyond all expectations, and nearly all signs of the disease have disappeared. Before being treated he could not breathe out of the nose, and now he has perfect control of the nasal organ. Perox A did the business.

1870. The gentleman told the reporter the following straightforward story of his case. "I took the disease in Memphis. It commenced in my head and

An hour afterward be was given into custody. When the trial came on there was no difficulty in proving his guilt; it also came out that he had squandered the money he had approprinted in dissipation, and that he was even a more worthless character than I had believed. I felt no compunction for the part I had played. I had only fulfilled my duty. Nor did I anticipate that his threats were anything more than the expressions of the hate which he naturally left howard me.

He was condemned to two years' imprisonment with hard labor.

Naturally I was dissatisfied with the recent course of things, and cast my eyes round in every direction for a fresh field of activity. At the same time it behooved us to be careful; more than one firm had recently come to grief, driven into dangerous speculations by the necessity of doing something.

I was in the refreshment room at Euston one day, taking a hasty lunch on my return from a journey to Birmingham, when I was conscious of some one looking at me.

I turned round and faced a man who seemed familiar to me. A moment's reflection and I recognized him—Macfarlane.

"That is not the usual method in which embezzlement is treated, I replied, coldly. "Do you mean that you will prosecute me?"

"I have no doubt whatever that the firm will.

"It's no good putting it on the firm," he said angrily. "It is you who have discovered it ali. No one will know a word of it if you don't speak."

"You confess to nothing except a mistake. It is for you to undertake the responsibility of treating it as anything more. Are you going to ruin me? Don't you know that if I am arrested my life is wrecked?"

I hesitated. It is a serious thing to blast a man's prospects forever, however he may deserve punishment. He saw my conserved."

"I and twat years. Well, I have waited years, and here is my revenge. I am treating you to coffee and cigars, and talk ing to you just as if I were the senior partner, and you a clerk. ## Dr. J. E. SMITH.

Asbestoes Rooting,

The best ericknes of a physician's success is the sestimony of his patients. The increasing themands for up professional sectices period to dealth about a professional sectices per an extra consulted me. I never use a satient's name without permission, though I have many hundred certificates from those whom I have cured size they had been pronounced incurable. A thorough medical education with many versit peoplial experience and small arrived the three processes and strain section of the proposed processing and strain section. Which is cheap, and can be applied by any one it requires no skill to do it, and is just the thin do a quite, jub cheap and good. One man can tout ten squares in ten hours. If applied to mporary building it can be taken of red put o transcently after twelve months use or longer. In be put on flat or steep roofs.

At short notice, in the best manner and of best material, as I use no other.
